

LOST

18 Sep. 2018 @ Hackney Downs

I lost my necklace while cycling to work - somewhere between Stoke Newington, Hackney Downs, Dalston Junction, Canonbury. I have a feeling that it was probably the Hackney Downs area. Silver chain and small locket, probably around half an inch long. Floral pattern on the front, dented at the back. Old, tiny photo inside of three children. Basically worthless, except to me - please let me know if you think you've found it! (Lou, 19 Sep. 2018)
