

LOST

10 May. 2019 @ Shepherd's Bush Station, London

My sister and me were travelling the Overground line to Shepherd's Bush on Friday, May 10th. After we got out of the train (maybe around 11.20 am) she realized, that her wallet was lost. She's not sure if she lost it at Clapham Junction, on the train or on the track at Shepherd's Bush. Has anybody found it? There were several cards in it, VISA-/banking cards, aswell as her German identity card, driver's license, a season-ticket for our soccer team and around 40 euros and 15 British pound.
