

LOST

14 Feb. 2020 @ King's Cross tube station

Lost an engagement ring on the Victoria Line, possibly at Kings Cross. There is a number engraved inside. It is a white gold, emerald cut ring. I have attached a picture. Praying someone finds it and find it in their heart to report it. I can't even put in to words what I feel but I am devastated and disappointed in myself. (Sara, 14 Feb. 2020)
