11 Apr. 2019 @ Canary Wharf Station (On the train)

I found a males wedding ring (with various diamonds on it and a mix of gold and silver plated) on the train approaching Canary Wharf Station (towards Stratford) this morning at around 9am. The ring was handed in to DLR staff at Canning Town station, who said they would pass it on to underground staff. I hope it's owner is able to locate it! (Shruti Sidhu, 11 Apr. 2019)
