2 Bags Found: a suitcase and a hold-all with contents thrown into street this morning. Suitcase belonging to lady with summer holiday items, the Vango hold-all belonging to a man filled with walking boots and waterproofs. Contents thrown over road near Wavendon Avenue, London W4, looks like they may have been taken from the boot of one or two cars...? No identification in either bag, I hope they can be reunited with their owners. Pls get in touch if you recognise them. (Lisa, 12 Aug. 2019)
