

LOST

30 Apr. 2020 @ Wingreen Court, Don Mills & Lawrence, Toronto

I had the repulsive experience of finding out my much younger roommate was something of a malignant narcissist. When he found I wouldn't let him feel entitled to my food or be intimidated by his attempts to '1-up me'(?!), he resorted to trying to get me evicted. That didn't prove to be as easy as he thought, so he vandalized several items and stole some others, dumping them outside. He had to recover them, but one was lost by that point - my Nikon W300 camera. (Kenny, 09 Jun. 2021)
