

LOST

17 Aug. 2019 @ GU22 7AE

On 17th August, at 10:35 I was travelling from London Waterloo to Poole. I have left my wedding ring in the train's large toilet, on the shelf next to the sink. It happened probably around 11:30-12:00, around Woking, maybe Winchester. It is a classic style, large size ring, 19mm diameter, 6mm wide. Made from white gold, it has inner engrave saying "375". It has a polished surface but got a lot of scratches over a couple of months. (Lukasz, 23 Aug. 2019)
