

LOST

17 Jan. 2020 @ Lynden Pindling International Airport

His name is Otto and he is 6 inches. My mom gave him to me 22 years ago but she died 6 years ago. I lost him on Delta flight 494 from JFK to Nassau, Bahamas. Otto goes everywhere with me . He has moved across the country in the US, helped me with my mom's death, my divorce, and many, many more. He absorbs my tears and makes me smile whenever I look at his face. I think of him as my mom's little helper and I am offering $300 reward if he can be return. He is wearing black shorts with a gold chain (Diane Vu, 23 Jan. 2020)
